

Eurasia Window, Door & Glass Fairs Proved Their Significance for the Industry Once Again With a New International Visitor Record

20th Eurasia Window, 11th Eurasia Door and 9th Eurasia Glass Fairs which were held concurrently by Reed Tuiyap on March 6-9, 2019 concluded with a tremendous success. With participation of 614 Companies and company representatives from 27 countries and 68.440 visitors (56.064 domestic, 12376 international) from 117 countries; the fair trio were highly appreciated by the industry professionals.

In 2019 Edition Eurasia Window, Door & Glass Fairs have managed to set a new international visitor record with 12.376 professionals and 23% of increase according to 2018.

The Top Ten Visitor Countries Were;

- Iran
- Bulgaria
- Iraq
- Macedonia
- Kosovo
- Serbia
- Romania
- Algeria
- Libya
- Ukraine

The shows that grow strong with the support of Window Producers Quality League Association (PÜKAB), Window and Door Industry Association (PÜKAD), Entrepreneur Aluminum Producers Association (GALSİAD) brought visitors with 667 company and company representatives from 27 countries which showcase the most innovative trends and products that will determine the future of their industries at 12 halls with full capacity.

Events That Were Highly Appreciated.

Eurasia Window, Door & Glass Fairs not only create a business environment but also host newest trends, most innovative products and give a glimpse about tomorrow of the industry for professionals. For instance, Door Workshop which is held by Orsiad, Aluminium Innovation Center, structured by Galsiad and “The Role of Aluminium Façade Systems on Architecture Seminar” will illuminate visitors regarding the progress of industry.

Our Next Meeting

The fairs which are organized as a result of diligent work considering the expectations of exhibitors and visitors make a name for themselves. The shows became a world renowned meeting point with increasing international visitor numbers year by year. The fairs which reshape according to industrial expectations, will be held concurrently on March 4-7, 2020 and will be most prestigious trade hub of the industry once again.